On November 9 and the 16th the Boy Scouts of America, Bluegrass Council had a SCOUTING FOR FOOD drive. On November 9th scouts distributed bags and/or door hangers to let their neighbors know about the drive. On the 16th, Scouts revisit those houses to pick up bags full of canned foods and nonperishable items. The food was then delivered to God's Pantry who will give it to needy families in the local community. Troop 282, Troop 8 and Pack 282 distributed about 200 door hangers. On the 16th Scouts collected about 250 pounds of food.

Those attended on the 9th were Chris Boots, Jan Eggum, Julieann Eggum, Molly Eggum, Brady Hardman, Steve Hardman, John Rotramel and John Tomecek

The fall is the time for backpacking and of course camping. So, on November 16th the troop collected the bags of food for the SCOUTING FOR FOOD and then went to Camp McKee and camped and backpacked around the camp to the Offut shelters. They had lunch and went hiking for about 4 miles. Returned to the shelters and set up camp and Scouts worked on cooking requirements and scouting skills and of course started a fire. The weather was prefect and NO RAIN. Those attending were Brady Hardman, Britten Sheldon, Dominic Sympson, Andrew Vogel and leaders John Buckles, Chris Boots and John Rotramel.
