We now have a Facebook page!

Each year the Troop does a planning overnight Lockin in the MQ gym. Friday, January 3 was no different. The troop lead by the Senior Patrol Leader, Ryan Carpenter, organized flip chart paper and scouts decided the activities for the year. Dinner was homemade pizzas that the scouts rolling out and decorated with whatever topping they wanted. Movies and games were played. The results were full stomachs and activities planned for the entire 2020 and very little sleep.

Scout Sunday is always held in February and all scouts, including Brownies, Girl Scouts, American Heritage, Cub Scouts and Boy Scouts from MQ celebrated at the 11:00 clock Mass with Father Dan on February 9, 2020.

On February 23 the Diocesan Scout Sunday was celebrated with Bishop Stowe at a special Mass at 1:30pm. Bishop Stowe also presented all the religious awards earned by scouts since last year.

Also, A.J. Paris Cubmaster of Pack 282 earned the adult religious award, the Bronze Pelican for his support of the religious environment in Scouting.

On Saturday, February 15 was the Order of the Arrow (OA) bowling day. Order of the Arrow is a service organization within the Boy Scouts. Brady Hardman represented Troop 282 and he said he bowled a 300 game,,,,hmm.

On February 22 the troop went to Camp McKee for a winter campout. It didn't disappoint, it was cold. Scouts worked on advancement. Some cooking and compass work and a day hike around camp.

Boy Scout Troop 282, Chartered by Mary Queen of the Holy Rosary Church, is looking for a new Scoutmaster. John Rotramel, our current Scoutmaster, will be stepping down. He has been Scoutmaster for the past four years and is still going to hang around, but would like to pass the torch to a new Scoutmaster. If you know of anyone that is interested, please contact John Tomecek, Troop 282 Committee Chair, at 859-433-5646.
