Troop 282 Activities

In February the troop camped out at Stonehedge Farm. When darkness arrived, the scouts built a fire to stay warm in the chilly environment.

To fundraise for new equipment and summer camp the scouts held bake sale at one of Mary Queen's weekly lent fish fries. Among the many deserts where cupcakes, ice-cream, and cookies. Many thanks to all the parents for making homemade dishes.

Finally, the Boy Scouts of Troop 282 also assisted with the concession stand to help Pack 282 fundraiser at the District Pinewood Derby. They were tasked with moving things, running the concession stand, and assisting cleanup. Many hot dogs and hamburgers, cookies and chips were consumed.
