We now have a Facebook page!

Troop 282 would like to welcome three new scouts.

Juan Atienzo, Jose Olivas and Jonathan Herrera

To all, may your Scouting journey be filled with memorable experiences, adventures, and of course FUN.

Troop 282 Activities

A local Daughters of the American Revolution, Captain John Waller Chapter, asked troop 282 to perform an American flag retirement ceremony at Hartland subdivision clubhouse. The ceremony was held at 7pm and convened with the burning of about 25 flags.

Asa Thomas, Andrew Vogel, Jeremy Terhune, and John Tomecek performing part of the ceremony. Also attended and helped with the ceremony were Scouts Juan Atienzo, Brady Hardman, Jonathan Herrera, Gabe Nazario, Jose Olivas, Asten Martinez and adults Chris Boots, Jim Fritz, Steven Hardman, John Rotramel and Evan Terhune

On May 21st the troop went backpacking in the smoky mountains. All went well until the drive home when traffic necessitated a detour. After a quick pitstop at a local barbeque restaurant the troop made it back by 6pm.

Jeremy Terhune, James Eggum, Dominic Sympson, and John Rotramel

On the Saturday before Memorial Day the scouts of Troop 282 along with a large group of volunteers placed approximately 15,000 flags in front of grave stone at Camp Nelson National Cemetery. The event was organized by the Central Kentucky Veterans Committee.
