

Boy Scout Troop 282

Chartered by Mary Queen of the Holy Rosary

Troop 282 Activities

On January 13, 2017 the troop had its annual lock-in which involves planning for the new year. Other activities included baking pizza, playing games, and watching movies.

Troop 282 prepares pizzas for dinner under the watchful eye of John Tomecek at their annual lock-in and planning meeting.

January 16, 2017: The troop attended a Harlem Globetrotters game at Rupp Arena. Members of the troop presented the flags on the court for the National Anthem. Later, scouts watched from the stands as the Globetrotters won the game.

Isaac Downs, Noah Sprout, and Asa Thomas present the flags at the Harlem Globetrotter's game January 16.

Weekly Meeting: We spent most of our Tuesday meetings in January working on chess merit badge. Scouts learned the rules of chess and basic chess strategies. A mini-tournament was held where players recorded the moves they made using standard chess notation. Nate Carpenter won the tournament.

Popcorn Still Available

Popcorn is still available for purchase. If interested, please contact Paul Vogel at spock1156@yahoo.com.

Troop 282 Upcoming Events

- Perfect North Ski Trip 1/28/17
- MQHR Parish Scout Sunday 2/12/17
- Stonehedge Farm Campout 2/18/17

See more about Troop 282 on www.t282.org

If you are interested in Boy Scouts of America, either as a Boy Scout who is 11 or has completed 5th grade, or as an adult leader, please contact Scoutmaster John Rotramel (859)-223-4235 or Troop 282 Committee Chair, John Tomecek at (859)-296-5803.

This newsletter was written by Andrew Vogel, Troop 282 Scribe.